

Tribulation and Rapture

Sinless at Christ's Return

Our Hope

- Works of the devil destroyed
- Sons of God
- Heirs of eternal life
- We are sinless now as we will ever be

... shall grow in grace, but we shall never be more completely pardoned than when we first believed: we shall one day stand before the glorious presence of God in His own sacred courts, and see the Well-beloved and wear His likeness, but we shall not even then be more perfectly forgiven than we are at this present moment.

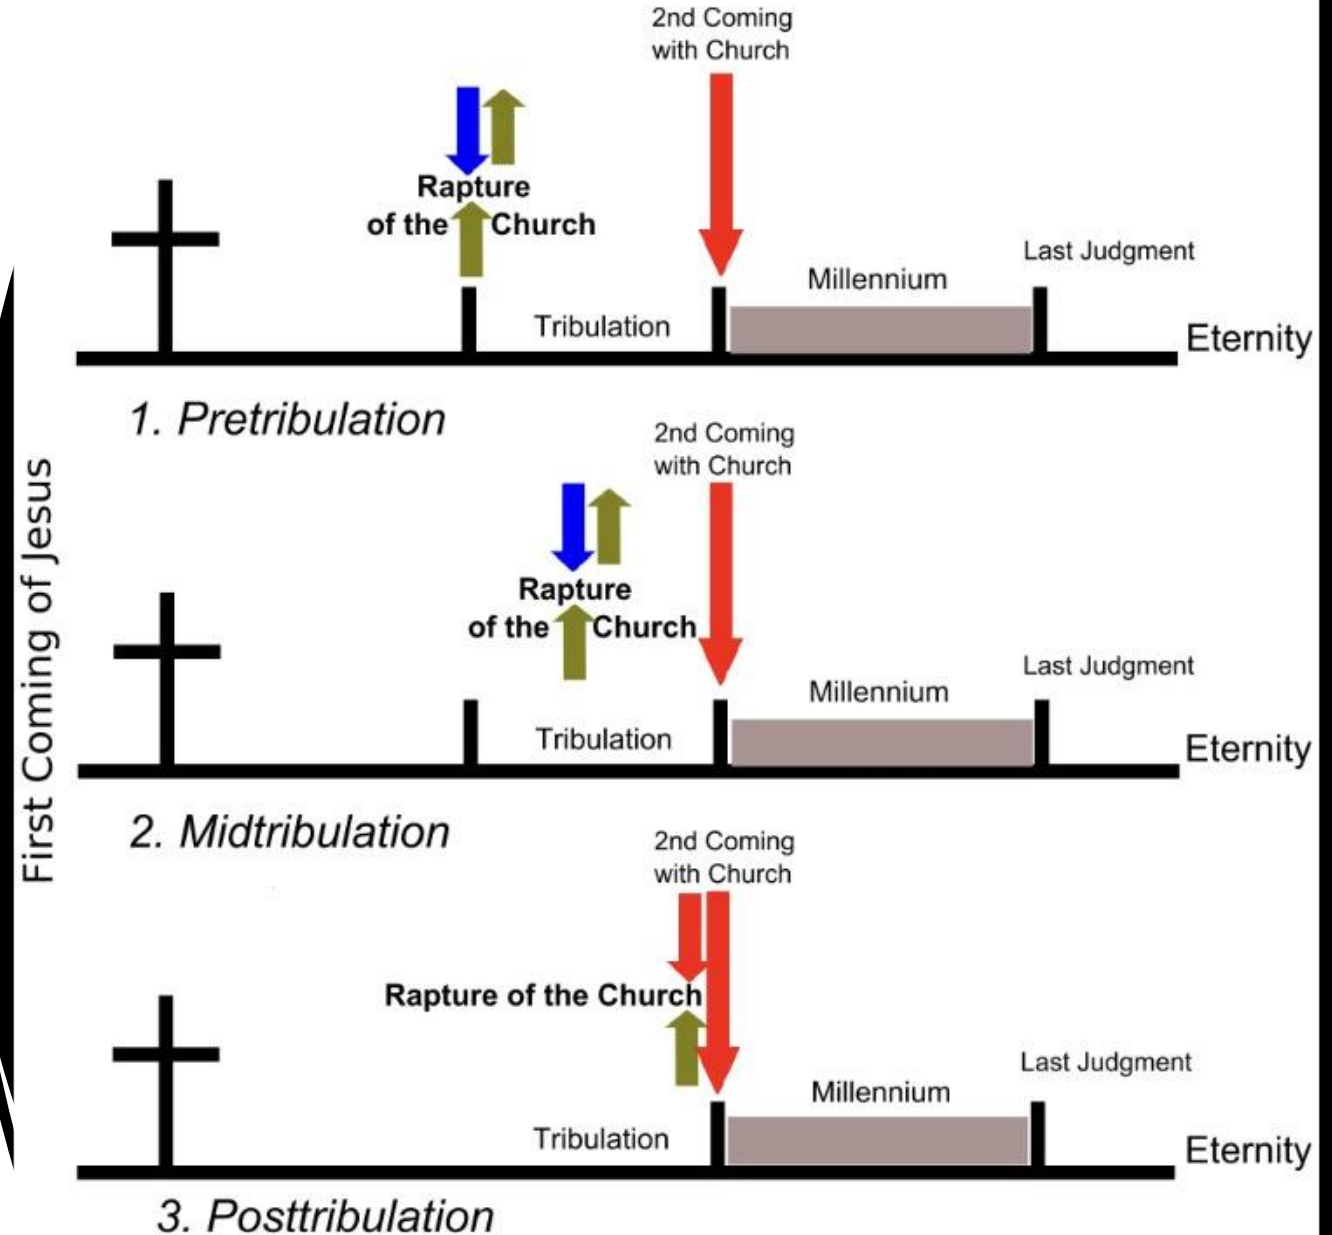

C.H. Spurgeon

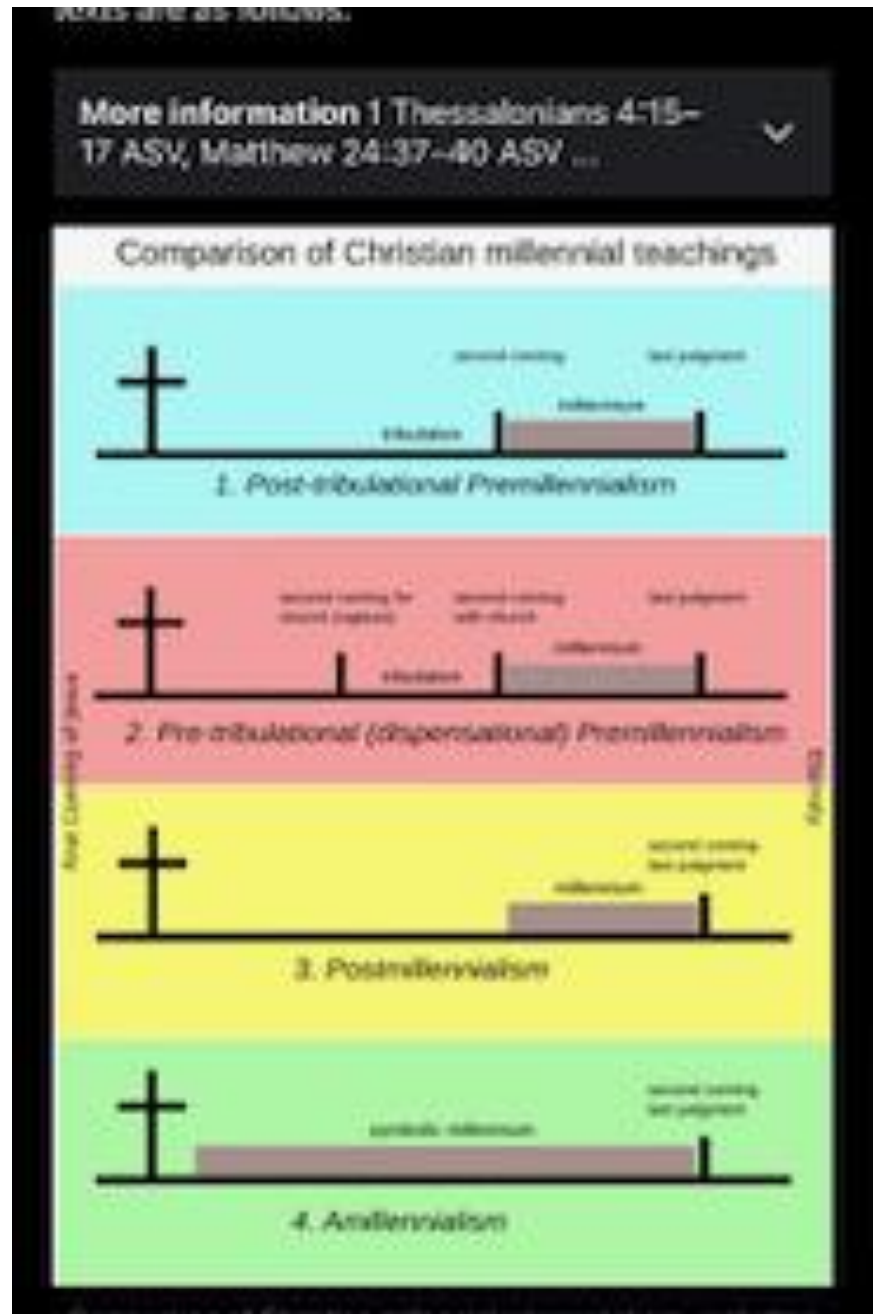

Tribulation

- Crucifixion
- Tribulation
- Rapture
- Millennium
- Last judgment

Covenant or Dispensational Theology

Progressive (current) or traditional dispensationalism

dispensationalism

Progressive and traditional dispensationalists hold to many common beliefs, including views that are uniquely dispensational. The vast majority of adherents in both schools hold to a distinction between Israel and the Church, [2]:49–51 a future pre-tribulation rapture, [2]:317 a seven-year tribulation, and a Millennial Kingdom [2]:54–56 in which the rule of Jesus Christ will be centered in Jerusalem. Progressive dispensationalists tend to de-emphasize the pre-tribulation rapture doctrine, and some lean toward the post-tribulation rapture
